Pumpkin 1: I am a big fat pumpkin. I am getting scared because Halloween is coming, and I don’t want to be pumpkin pie!

Pumpkin 2: I am a big fat pumpkin, too. I am not one bit scared that Halloween is coming. I am the bravest pumpkin in the pumpkin patch!

Pumpkin 1 and 2 (pointing at the door): Oh, no! Here comes a chicken!

Pumpkin 1: I’m getting out of here! (Pumpkin 1 runs and hides in the audience.)

Pumpkin 2: I’m not afraid of any chicken! Hey, you big egg head! You can’t get me!

Chicken: I’ll get that pumpkin and make him into pumpkin pie!
The chicken and the pumpkin run around and around.

Pumpkin 2 (pointing to the door): Hey, look! Here comes the farmer! He wants some barbecue chicken for dinner tonight! You’re in trouble now!

Chicken: I don’t want to be the farmer’s dinner. I’m getting out of here! But boo hoo, no pumpkin pie for me! I guess I’ll eat a seed pie.

Pumpkin 1 comes out of hiding and stands by Pumpkin 2. Together they point at the door.

Pumpkin 1 and 2: Oh, no! Here comes a dog!

Pumpkin 1: I’m getting out of here! (Pumpkin 1 runs and hides in the audience.)

Pumpkin 2: I’m not afraid of any dog. Hey, you big bone head! You can’t get me!

Dog: I’ll get that pumpkin and make him into pumpkin pie!

Little Witch 1: I am so glad we are at spell school!

Little Witch 2: It is going to be a howling good time learning how to cast spells!

Teacher Witch (claps her hands together twice):
Now little witches, always remember when you are casting a spell you must rhyme your words! Listen to this: Hocus pocus! Banana peel! Watch this little girl spin like a wheel. Zap!

Little Girl spins round and round and falls on the floor.

Teacher Witch: Listen to this: Abracadabra! Swimming pool! Help this boy spell

Little boy spells the school's name.

Teacher Witch: Now practice your spells. I will be back in a few minutes to check on you. Cackle! Cackle! (Teacher Witch leaves.)

Little Witch 1: OK, let me try! Hocus pocus! Little howl. Make this girl hoot like a...hmm, dog! Zap!

Little girl (barks four times): Does anyone have a bone?

Little Witch 1: Wait a minute! Let me try again! Hocus pocus! Little howl. Make this girl hoot like a...hmm, gorilla! Zap!

Little girl (beats her chest like a gorilla): Does anyone have a banana?

Little Witch 1: OK! OK! I will get it right this time! Hocus pocus! Little howl! Make this girl hoot like a...hmm, baby! Zap!

Little Girl (starts crying like a baby): It's time for my diaper change! Goo goo ga ga!

Act 1 (Goblin march out to the front of the stage.)

Narrator: Here come the jolly goblins!

Red Goblin: Red goblin!

Yellow Goblin: Yellow goblin!

Blue Goblin: Blue!

Green Goblin: And green!

All of the Goblins: We’re the funniest you have seen. Marching out along the street, knocking at your door! It looks to us like Halloween has come around once more! Whoooooopppppppeee! (Goblins jump up and down.)
Red Goblin: How can you make a skeleton laugh? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) Tickle her funny bone!

Yellow Goblin: Why didn't the skeleton go inside the haunted house? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) She didn't have the guts!

Blue Goblin: What do you call a skeleton that won't do any work? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) A Lazy Bones!

Green Goblin: What instrument did the skeleton play? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) The Trom–Bone!

Act 2 (Goblins march out to the front of the stage.)
Narrator: Oh, no! Here come those jolly goblins again!

Red Goblin: What game do baby ghosts like to play? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) Peek–a–BOOOO!

Yellow Goblin: What happened when the little ghost fell off the witch's broom? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) She got a BOOOO BOOOO!

Blue Goblin: How do baby ghosts keep their feet warm in the winter? Give up? (All other goblins answer: We give up!) They wear boocooties!

Elf 1: I don’t know if you know this, but in the summer all the reindeer at the North Pole get just a little bit bored!

Elf 2: That’s right! They still have six months to go until Christmas and all the reindeer games they play start to get a little old after a while!

Elf 3: We want to tell you the true story of Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer. It happened a long time ago! And it changed the way Santa delivered presents forever!

Elf 4: It was the summer of 1960. All the reindeer were trying to think of something to do!
Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen come prancing in. (Dasher is at the front of the line. The other reindeer are lined up accordingly.)

Dasher: What are we going to do today? I'm bored!

Dancer: I know! Christmas is still 150 days away!

Prancer: I'm ready to fly now!

Vixen: We can't! You know what Santa says…

Comet (talking like a brat): Yeah, we have to save the magic for Christmas Eve. Ho – ho – ho.

Cupid: So what are we supposed to do?

Donner: Do you want to play some reindeer games?

Blitzen: Like what? I'm sick of playing hoofball.

Dasher: Well, why don't we go to Dancer's house and play on his Play Station?

Dancer: We can't. It broke and the elves are still trying to fix it. It's at Santa's workshop.

Prancer: What are we going to do?
Rudolph: Thank you, Dasher! That was amazing! Ten miles in ten seconds! You are so fast! Ladies and Gentlemen may I introduce Dancer.

Dancer: Hey, Rudolph, shine that light on me! Here is a special snow dance. (Dancer does the Macarena as she sings): I love flying high in the sky. I love flying high in the sky. I love flying high in the sky. Hey Merry Christmas!

Everyone claps.

Rudolph: Wow, Dancer! I loved that dance and that song! Now ladies and gentlemen may I introduce Prancer.

Everyone claps.

Prancer: Hey, Rudolph, shine that light on me! Do you know what my mother said after I opened the backdoor and my new puppy ran away? (Singing) Who let the dogs out? Who? Who? Who? Who? (Sing it twice. All the reindeer sing with him second time.)

Everyone claps.

Rudolph: I know I didn’t let the dogs out! Ladies and gentlemen may I introduce Vixen.

Everyone claps.
Santa Needs Help

Cast Members
Santa     Pig     Cat     Skunk     Alligator     Child
Dasher     Two Elves

Props
Santa Hat     Two Elves’ Hats     Help Wanted Poster
A cup filled with ripped up white paper (Magic Snowflake dust)

Narrator: A long time ago Santa delivered all of his presents by running all around the world. By the end of the night his feet were so sore he would have over a thousand blisters.

Santa (running in with an empty toy bag): Ho – ho – ho! Ho – ho – ho! Ho – ho – ho! Ho – ho – OW! (Sitting down on the floor and rubbing his feet) Ow, my aching feet! I don’t think I can run around the world one more Christmas! Ow, my aching feet!

Narrator: So Santa went to his foot doctor. His foot doctor told him he was going to have to start walking, but Santa knew that he couldn’t get all of the presents delivered if he couldn’t run. Santa decided he needed help and this is what happened!

Santa: I have an idea. I want to find an animal that can fly in the sky and pull my sleigh. If I do, I would be able to deliver Christmas presents so much faster and my aching feet would be sooo happy.
Elf 1: Santa, how will you get the animals to fly?

Santa: I will use my magic snowflake dust! That will do the trick!

Elf 2: Why don’t I make a poster for you? We can hang it in the forest!

Elf 1: That way we can see what animals want to pull your sleigh. And you can see if they will do a good job for you!

Elf 1 and Elf 2 (looking to the audience): Santa has to be very picky you know!

Santa: Ho-ho-ho! That’s a great idea!

Elf 2 (brings in a sign): Here is the sign, Santa!

The elves read the sign:

Wanted:
An animal to help me pull my sleigh. I have magic snowflake dust to help you fly! If you are interested in the job come to my house at the North Pole.
Signed, Santa

Elf 1: Good luck, Santa! We’ll go hang this in the forest.

Narrator: A few days later there was a knock on the door.
Santa: Ho–ho–ho! Come in!

Pig: Hello, I want to apply for the flying animal job!

Santa: Let me see you fly! (Santa sprinkles magic dust on the pig.) Oh, magic snowflake dust, make this animal fly, way up high in the sky, sky, sky!

Pig (takes off flying): OK, here I go! Up, up, and away! Hey, I am flying! Hmmm! I am hungry. Santa, Could I stop at McDonald's?

Santa: No!

Pig: How about Taco Bell?

Santa: No! No!

Pig: Pizza Hut?

Santa: No! No! No!

Pig: Kentucky Fried Chicken?

Santa: No! No! No! No! Pig, I can't hire you! You are too hungry!

Pig: Oink, oink, oink! Boo hoo! I guess I'll go get a slop sandwich! I'm starving. Sorry I can't help you, Santa! (Pig leaves.)

There is a knock at the door.
Claude: It’s Christmas (Chanukah). Time for presents! Woof, woof, woof! I am soooo excited! Look, (pointing to the door) here comes my family!

Teddy: Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah), Claude! Here is a new bone for you! You are such a good dog!

Claude: Thank you, Teddy! It looks delicious! Woof, woof!

Emily: Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah), Claude! Here is a new blanket for you! I love you Claude!

Claude: Thank you, Emily! This will keep me snuggly warm on cold winter nights! I love you, too! Woof, woof!

Mom: Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah), Claude!
Dad: Here’s a new teddy bear for you! You are the best dog ever!

Claude: Thank you, mommy and daddy! I will sleep with my teddy every night! He is so cute! Woof, woof! And I have to agree. I do think I am the best dog ever! Woof, woof, woof!

Teddy: We love you, Claude!

Emily: We really do!

Mom: Come on, Claude!

Dad: It’s time for breakfast!

Claude: I’ll be there in just a minute! I love you! Woof, woof!

The family hugs Claude and goes off of the stage.

Claude: Oh, I just love my family and I LOVE all of my presents!

Boomer (coming in slowly, looking sad): Merry Christmas, (Happy Chanukah), Claude. What’s that you have?

Claude: It’s my new bone!
Boomer: I didn’t get any Christmas (Chanukah) presents. I’m hungry! I haven’t had a bone in weeks. Boo hoo! Woof.

Claude: Here Boomer, you can have mine!

Boomer (jumping up and down in an excited way): Thank you, Claude! Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah)! (Boomer runs off.)

Scooter (coming in slowly, looking sad): Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah), Claude. What’s that you have?

Claude: It’s my new blanket!

Scooter: Never had a blanket before! I didn’t get any Christmas (Chanukah) presents. Boo hoo! Woof.

Claude: Here Scooter, you can have mine!

Scooter (jumping up and down in an excited way): Thank you, Claude! Merry Christmas (Happy Hanukkah)! (Scooter runs off.)

Rover (coming in slowly, looking sad): Merry Christmas (Happy Chanukah) Claude. What’s that you have?

Claude: It’s my new teddy!
The three little elves come tip toeing into the classroom.

Elf 1 (pointer finger to his or her lips): Shhhhhhh! Don't tell anyone we are here!

Elf 2: We are watching kids at __________ School to see if they are naughty or nice. (Fill in the blank with your school's name.)

Elf 3: Santa wants us to try this new magic mistletoe. (All elves hold up their magic mistletoe.) Santa told us this magic mistletoe will help kids find the real meaning of Christmas!

Elf 1 (pointing to the door): Here come two boys!

Elf 2: I wonder if we will have to use our magic mistletoe.
Elf 3: Let's hide!

(Elves sit in the audience.)

Boy 1: I am going to get a new bike for Christmas!

Boy 2: So am I! I bet my bike will go faster than yours!

Boy 1: Oh, no it won't! I know my new bike will be faster than yours!

Boy 2: NO WAY!!!!!!

(Both boys start arguing.)

Elves pop up.

Elf 1: Oh, no! They are fighting!

Elf 2: That's not the Christmas spirit!

Elf 3: Let's get the magic mistletoe! That should do the trick!

The elves run around the kids three times saying, "Kissy! Kissy! Kissy!" Then they sit back down in the audience.
Boy 1: Oh, my! I feel different! You know it doesn't matter whose bike is faster. As long as we're friends I don't care!

Boy 2: I feel different, too! I hope you get the best bike ever! You're my best friend!

(The boys put their arms around each other's shoulders and walk off! The elves pop up.)

Elf 1: It worked!

Elf 2: Our magic mistletoe did the trick!

Elf 3: It helped those boys see the true meaning of Christmas!

Elf 1 (pointing to the door): Look, here comes two girls!

Elf 2: I wonder if we will have to use our magic mistletoe again.

Elf 3: Let's hide!

(Elves sit with the audience.)

Girl 1: This lollipop is delicious! I'm glad I have another one I can eat when I'm finished with this one!

Little Girl: Happy Valentine’s Day! I must be the most kissable girl in the whole school. Everyone I meet wants a kiss! But I won’t do it!

Boy 1: Hey, _________ (Little Girl’s name). Can I have a kiss?

Little Girl (whispering to the audience): See what I mean! Everyone wants to kiss me! Hmmm, watch me fool him.

Little Girl): Ok, close your eyes and count to three.

Boy 1: 1, 2, 3!

Little Girl kicks boy 1.

Boy 1: That hurt! Where’s your Valentine spirit? That’s not what I wanted!

Mother Mouse: Oh, my little baby. It’s time to go to sleep. Let me tuck you in! Here is a goodnight kiss. I love you! Sleep tight.

(Baby mouse lies down on the floor with his head on a pillow. Mother Mouse covers him with a blanket.)

Baby Mouse: Goodnight, mommy! Squeak! Squeak!

Mother Mouse (kisses Baby Mouse again and leaves the room): Sweet dreams!

Baby Mouse (sits up in bed): Mother, Mother! I want another.
Mother Mouse: What? What’s that? My baby wants another. Another MOTHER! Oh, no! (Mother mouse runs to the door.) Mrs. Lion, Mrs. Lion, come quick! My baby wants another mother.

Mrs. Lion: He does? Well, I don’t know much about mice, but I can try. Little Mousy, let me sing you a lion song. (Mrs. Lion sings "Three Blind Mice"). ROAR!

Baby Mouse: Whaaaaaa! That’s too scary!

Mother Mouse: Mrs. Lion, you can’t be the new mother for my son. Every time you sang him a song you would scare the squeak right out of him! I’m so sorry!

Mrs. Lion: That’s all right. He didn’t appreciate good music anyway!

Baby Mouse: Mother, Mother! I want another.

Mother Mouse: What? What’s that? My baby wants another. Another MOTHER! Oh, no! (Mother Mouse runs to the door.) Mrs. Rabbit, Mrs. Rabbit, come quick! My baby wants another mother.

Mrs. Rabbit (hops in the door): He does? Well, I don't know much about mice, but I can try. Little Mousy, let me give you a late night snack. Here, eat this carrot cake. It will put you right to sleep. (She hands the baby mouse a plate with a picture of the carrot cake on it.)

Baby Mouse (takes a bite): Squeak! Squeak! YUCK! I would much rather nibble on cheesecake!

Mother Mouse: Mice can't digest carrots very well! Mrs. Rabbit, I'm afraid you won't do.

Mrs. Rabbit: That's all right. I didn't think he would be very "hoppy" with me anyway!

Baby Mouse: Mother, mother! I want another.

Mother Mouse: What? What's that? My baby wants another. Another MOTHER! Oh, no! (Mother Mouse runs to the door.) Mrs. Dog, Mrs. Dog, come quick! My baby wants another mother.

Mrs. Dog: He does? Well, I don't know much about mice, but I can try. Let me tell you a bedtime story. Once there was this mean cat. She was sly and had sharp claws! I wanted to teach her a Mommy Bird (sitting on an egg singing): Soon I’ll be a mommy as happy as can be. When my egg hatches and I see my little birdie, I’ll hug him and feed him and tuck him in bed. When he is sleeping I’ll kiss him on the head!

Mommy Bird (talking in a regular voice): Oh, I can’t wait until my egg hatches. It’s going to be so much fun being a mother bird! It seems like I have been waiting forever! MMMM, I’m so hungry. I don’t think it will be a problem to fly to the garden and get some worms for a delicious worm stew. (Kissing the egg, she flies off.) Be back soon my little egg!

Mother bird flies off and suddenly the egg starts to crack. Out pops the baby bird.

Baby Bird (stretching and tweeting): Oh, so this is what the world looks like! What an interesting place!
Mom, I'm here! I want to see you! I need you! Mom? Mommy? Mamma? Where's my mother? Wahhh! Wahhh! I want my mommy!

A porcupine walks by.

Porcupine: What's the matter, little bird?

Baby Bird: I can't find my mommy. I don't have a mother. Who is going to hug me? Wahhh! Wahhh! Tweet! Tweet!

Porcupine: Well I am just the mom for you. I can hug you and make you feel safe and secure. Come here.

Baby Bird: You would do that for me? Thank you, porcupine! Thank you! Tweet! Tweet!

Porcupine starts hugging baby bird. Baby bird screams loudly.

Baby Bird: I know you mean well porcupine, but if you hugged me every day like that I wouldn't have any feathers left. You are not the mom for me. Wahhh! Wahhh!

Porcupine: Well if you change your mind, you know where to find me! Good-bye little bird. (The porcupine tries to hug little bird again, but little bird jumps back and shakes his head.)

Baby Bird: Where's my mommy? Wahhh! Wahhh!

A dog walks by.

Dog: What's the matter, little bird?

Baby Bird: I can't find my mommy. I don't have a mother! Who is going to sing me to sleep at night? Wahhh! Wahhh! Tweet! Tweet!

Dog: I think I am just the mom for you! I can sing you to sleep each night. I must say I have a divine voice! Let me show you.

Baby Bird: You would do that for me? Thank you, dog! Thank you! Tweet! Tweet!

Dog starts barking the song Rock - a - Bye Baby.

Baby bird (covering up his ears): Oh, my! I am not trying to be mean, but that lullaby sounds like you have a tummy ache! If I listened to that every night my eardrums would break! I am sorry, dog. You are not the mom for me.

Dog: Well I could get you some earplugs.

Narrator: Once there was a farmer who had a daughter.

Farmer: Hello, I am the farmer and this is my daughter.

Farmer’s Daughter: Hi, I’m the farmer’s daughter and I am off to do my job. I have to tell you. It is the most boring job in the whole wide world!

Narrator: Can anyone guess what her job is?

Farmer’s Daughter: Every day I have to go to my father’s pasture by the edge of town, and watch his sheep! Do you know how boring that is? Sometimes my dog comes with me and even he gets BORED!
Dog: She’s right. Sheep are not very interesting animals. I mean they can’t tell jokes or even sing songs. This has got to be the most boring job in the whole wide world!

Narrator: One day the farmer’s daughter decided to have some fun! She went with her dog to the pasture to watch the sheep and this is what happened:

Sheep are baaing in the pasture.

Farmer’s Daughter (talking to her dog): We have got to find a way to have some fun. All work and no play is no way to spend the day!

Dog: I agree! Do you want to torment a cat or dig up bones or chase some cars? That would be fun!

Farmer’s Daughter: That might be fun for a dog, but come on! I’m a little girl!

Dog: Doggone it! This day could have been bark-tastic!
Farmer’s Daughter: Hey! I’ve got it! Sit back and watch this. HELP! HELP! HELP! THERE IS A WOLF WITH SHARP TEETH! HE WANTS TO EAT ALL OF THE SHEEP! HELP! HELP!

Sheep 2: Somebody call 9 – 1 – 1! Somebody call 9 – 1 – 1!

Sheep 3: I don’t want to be sheep pie! Mommy! Mommy!

Sheep 4: Run for your lives!

Dog (looking all around): Wait a minute! I don’t see any WOLF!

Farmer’s Daughter: Of course you don’t! I just made it up! But look at those sheep! They are so scared! That’s cracking me up!

Dog (starts laughing): And look! Here come some people from the village!
The Great Cirkinski: Hello! I am the great Big Top Ring Master - the Great Cirkinski. You may have heard of. I used to be the most renowned Circus Master of all time. I was the one who discovered the lady with all of the tattoos and the strongest man in the world. I even found Frankly I’m Notscared. The man who could tame 94 lions at one time. I would ask you to give me some applause, but alas! Now my circus is in dismay. The lady with all of the tattoos had them lazered off. She was all set to get married and thought they looked awful with her beautiful wedding gown. And as for Frankly I'm Notscared, he tried to tame 100 lions at one time and things just didn't work out for him. If you know what I mean!

The Great Cirkinski: I am so ashamed. My circus is not doing very well. I am in need of a star. Someone who could bring back the audience and revive the circus spirit. Yes, I am embarrassed to admit to you that without a new star that can save my circus, I will be washed up, a circus has been. Oh, isn't there anyone who can help me?

Boy 1: I think I can help you! I think I am very funny. Maybe what the circus needs is a comedian. Everyone loves to laugh!

The Great Cirkinski: Maybe a comedian is what my circus needs! Someone who can make children and adults laugh. The world is such a serious place. This could be just what I'm looking for! Ok, tell me a joke.
Boy 1: Ok! Ok! Here I go. What time is it when a circus elephant sits on your car?

The Great Cirkiniski: I give up. What time is it when a circus elephant sits on your car?

Boy 1: Time to get a new car! Do you get it? Ha! Ha! Ha!

The Great Cirkiniski: Uh, well that really wasn’t that funny. Can I hear another joke?

Boy 1: Oh, Yes! What did the clown’s mom say when he wouldn’t stop goofing off?

The Great Cirkiniski: I give up, what did she say?

Boy 1: Stop clowning around! Get it! Ha! Ha! Ha!

The Great Cirkiniski: I am so sorry to tell you this, but you are really not that funny. You could never save my circus!
Boy 1: Really? You don’t think I am funny? I think I’m hilarious! Sorry I couldn’t help you! Good luck!

The Great Cirkinski: Oh, who will save my circus?

Girl 1: It has to be me! I am the world’s greatest opera singer. Really I think I am just what you need to save this place!

The Great Cirkinski: An opera singer? I think that could work. I am going to let you audition. My circus is my life. I have to find a way to save it!

Girl 1: (Singing badly) Clowns are funny. Clowns are cute. I wish a clown would marry me in his silly wedding suit.

The Great Cirkinski: Yow! I don’t want to hurt your feelings but my circus is in ruin as it is. This would definitely not bring an audience in. It would have them running for the hills.
